

SHANE  PHILPOTT
MINISTRIES

The Days of the Return of the Sons and Daughters of God

*Rev. Shane Philpott
Prophetic Word
Sunday, May 17, 2009*

I hear the Spirit of God saying this right now. I hear the Spirit of God saying, “this is the day of the return of the sons and daughters of God.” I hear the Spirit of the Lord saying, “in this day, as they return,” the Lord says, “watch your heart, check your heart, keep your heart right. For in this day,” says the Lord, “there shall be many that shall return. Not those that shall just return in humility, but there will be those that return in pride and you’ll have to deal with that pride. You’ll have to work through it, you’ll have to figure a way through it. But know this,” says the Lord, “it does not matter how they return, whether they return in pride, they might return in anger, they might return in humility. Know this,” says the Lord, “I have brought them back. I’ve caused them to return. Not all will return,” says God, “not all will come back with the attitude and the heart change of the prodigal son. “But,” the Lord says, “many of those will.” Now, the Lord says this: “There will be those that return, and they’ll come back with the heart of the prodigal son. They’ll come back with tears in their eyes, they’ll come back with a word on their mouth that says, ‘I’m so sorry for what I did. I’m not worthy to do this. I’m not worthy to do that.’ And the Lord says, “keep your eye on these men and women for I’ll use them greatly, and I’ll use them mightily,” says God.

“So now,” says the Lord, “this is the day of the return. And now,” says God, “I’ll reach out, I’ll reach out into all different parts of the nation. All different parts of the region. All different parts of the heartland. And,” the Lord says, “I’ll cause them to see. And I’ll cause them to hear things that they’ve not seen and they’ve not heard. Now,” the Lord says, “as I do this, Pray. . Pray . . Pray daily. Pray as you think of them,” says God. “Pray as you come to church that they might hear and that the voice of this church, the voice of this preacher, might do what I’ve called it to do. For even now,” says God, “even now you’re just walking into just a little bit more of what I’ve called you to do. Oh but you’ve not yet seen all the great things that are ahead of you. Wonderful things that are in front of you. Times that will cause you to shout and dance and run. The things I’ve laid upon you, the anointings I’ve installed in you to do,” says God. “I can’t even show them all to you right now because it would scare you, it would frighten you. Some of you would draw back and say, ‘Lord, how can we do this?’ But the Lord says, “remember this. That in that day it’ll not be you doing it, it’ll be me doing it through you. It’ll be me doing it through you. So last of all," the Lord says, "you might ask yourself, what is your job?" The Lord says, "your job is to be willing. Your job is to be willing. Your job is to be a clean vessel for me. So now," says the Lord, "remember what I said in My Word. That in every house, in every great house there are many vessels. Vessels of gold and silver. Things of wood, hay and stubble." And the Lord says, "purify yourself, cleanse yourself of those things that would not bring glory to My Name so that when My presence comes, when My glory comes and in the day and the time it comes," says the Lord, "You'll be ready for it. You'll not be standing on the outside. You'll not be standing in the back, at the back of the pack looking at them all and getting mad and saying, 'Well, what did they do to deserve this?'"

The Lord says, "you're all invited, you're all invited, you're all invited, but no one, no one can make you willing. No one can make you willing," says God. "It's up to you. It's up to you. You have to present yourself, you have to present your body. Remember what My Word says, "As a loving sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto the Lord, which is your reasonable form of service unto Him. It's your job," says God. "So be willing in this day, be willing in this time, be willing in this hour," says the Lord, "to do the things that I've called you to do. Your Pastor is willing. The leaders of this church are willing. They've been anointed by Me. They've moved into a level of unity and power. They're willing. The vision of the house is willing. The mandate is willing." The Lord says today, "are you willing? In fact," the Lord says this, "are you willing or are you watching? Are you willing or are you watching? Are you participating or are you spectating? Well," the Lord says, "only you know in the depth, in the depth, in the depth of your heart, only you know which one you are. Have you been watching everyone else do it or are you a part of it? Well," the Lord says, "if you've been watching, if you've been spectating, this is the day. It's the day to change. It's the day to turn over the leaf. It's the day to push that door open that you closed and say, 'Lord, I'm going to step through, I'm going to go to that new level. I'm going to go with those you've called me to go with. I'm not going to question You, I'm not going to argue about it. No, Lord God, I'm a willing worshipper. I'm a willing Christian and I'm going to move into the things You have got for me because, Lord God, I know that if I'll bloom where You plant me, I'll have the very best things in life that I ever, ever thought I could have. I'll have them. They'll be mine.'

"And now," the Lord says this. "Now, even in this year," says God, "not only will you see people say that I'm willing, here in the heartland, not only will you see them say that I'm willing in this city, but you're going to hear people say all across America, I'm willing. I'm willing! I've been one of those spectators, but now I'm going to be a participator! And the Lord said, "I'll bring your sons and daughters from afar. And so," the Lord says, "you'll do so much more. You'll do so much more for Me, in these next months and years," says the Lord God. "And you'll just rejoice and it'll be a time of celebration and you'll never forget the things I've done for you. For these are the days of the King. These are the days of the return of the Sons of God, and My return is near," says God. "Be ... Ye ... Ready."